YAY! RETAIL EXPERIENCE

HUMBLE BRAGS

Designed a T-shirt for the Milwaukee Bucks that was sold in the Pro Shop and online. It sold out in days

My sister and I designed a Target/Starbucks play room for my niece for Christmas and posted pictures online. It quickly went viral and was featured on GMA, Buzz feed, Scary Mommy, Insider and more. TMJ4 even came to our house to interview us

I created branding for Cheveux Hair Salon, since they opened in 2012 and am able to keep the brand up to date and trendy helping them grow into a bigger salon with long term clients

Won a contest to be selected to create an photo-based game app which I worked with developers to design and execute and was sold in the app store

Designed Stomp Out Bullying t-shirts, where my design was chosen three years in a row for a national campaign. Mario Lopez, Taye Diggs, Matt Lauer and Sara Ramirez all were apart of the campaign and was able to reach millions of people.

Brig, you are an absolute delight to work with and you are always thinking of others. Even when you were feeling under the weather you still showed up and helped our drowning team out! No amount of points can show you how much I appreciate you and am happy to have you be a part of my team. ILY!!
